Your Dreams Can a Duraclean Service

You have a more enjoyable career
...and you can start full or part time

Hundreds of men—previously working for salaries or wages—now enjoy greatly increased incomes, personal independence, and secure futures as owners of a low-investment, high-profit, lifetime business

Unthinking men may tell you that the day is past when an individual can build a successful business of his own. The fact is that service businesses have opened a new world of opportunity. The "mama and papa" grocery store and the corner druggist have succumbed to the gigantic chains. But, in their place, an exciting new kind of business offers big profit opportunities for the individual.

For twenty years the "service industry" has grown with fantastic speed. Let the chains have the retail store business. Even a small service business providing an unusual service can bring profits to the individual that were unheard of in the old days.

What is the difference? Just this: Chain stores operate under the same plan; under the same well-known name; but are owned by one corporation. In franchising, the individual uses tested and proven plans for starting his business and building it; he operates under a

Become a Reality with Business

Nationally Advertised and well-known name, he has step by step guidance but he owns the business. He enjoys the advantages of a chain, but he keeps all the profits for himself.

With a Duraclean Service Dealership, there is no store to rent. No fixtures to buy. No inventory or stock of goods to pay for. And, no special education or experience is needed. Men of almost every educational level have made outstanding successes with the "know-how" furnished by our Company.

They've worked from their homes, as these services are rendered on the customer's premises. Usually, the portable equipment is carried in their car trunk until profits pay for their first truck. A cash outlay of only $2188 puts them in business, and the company will finance the balance of the total $6500 cost, without interest or finance charges.

You have a modern method of cleaning and reviving color and resilience of carpets, rugs, upholstered furniture and auto interiors. It has visible superiority over the old ways of harsh scrubbing, strong detergents, and power driven brushes. Independent laboratory tests show that the Duraclean "Absorption Method" removes twice as much dirt and soil as machine scrubbing. And everything is dry, ready to use in a few hours.

You have six other superior services. The Duraclean processes have proved so superior that Duraclean Services are now available worldwide.

Who are your customers? Homes, hotels, motels, schools, shops, stores, offices, theaters, hospitals, institutions.

Your future? You can start with a big operation . . . or many start alone or with only 1 or 2 servicemen. Each can render Fred Williams, La.

Start full time . . . or spare time adding your business profit to job salary until your business income warrants full time.

If you've ever wanted to "some day" own your own business you should investigate now, TODAY. The Duraclean Opportunity is fully explained in a 24-page book. It will be mailed free to any person who is sincerely interested in a future of security and independence. Just mail the coupon for full details. No salesman will call on you.

We'll help you with financing, up to twice your cash investment, and with nearly fifty years of experience showing men how to make their dreams become realities. It costs you nothing to investigate and does not place you under the slightest obligation. Isn't this something you should do for yourself? Today?

EDITOR'S NOTEBOOK

Peter
King

Editor-in-Chief

With the new year--and new decade--just days away, I thought it might be fun to list a few of my predictions for wrestling in 1980. Next year at this time, we'll all know how I well I did.

1. Bob Backlund will lose his WWF championship, probably before Autumn.

2. Harley Race will yet again lose the NWA belt, but this time he won't regain it.

3. WWF tag team champions Ivan Putski and Tito Santana will be one of the shortest-lived champions in wrestling history.

4. Nick Bockwinkel will continue to defend his AWA belt. By the end of the year, with Backlund and Race having fallen, many will consider Bockwinkel the best champion in wrestling.

5. Ric Flair will resume his rulebreaking ways before the end of winter.

6. One of the following men will be banned for at least a few weeks in 1980: Ken Patera, Terry Funk, or Jimmy Snuka.

7. Bruno Sammartino will return to a full wrestling schedule by August, but he will not be able to win the WWF belt.

8. It will be the best year ever for Larry Zbyszko.

9. Rick Steamboat will come just seconds short of winning a world championship. But he will not be champion until 1983.

10. The Masked Superstar will be unmasked and all of wrestling will be shocked at his true identity.

11. Although he will have his finest year statistically, Greg Gagne will be discouraged because he doesn't win the AWA title.

12. One of Pat Patterson's many enemies will sneak-attack the hated rulebreaker and drive him from the sport with a crippling injury.

Get in on the PROFITS in SMALL ENGINE service and repair Start your own money

In just a short time, you can be ready to join one of the fastest growing industries in America...an industry where qualified men are making from $10.00 to $15.00 per hour...and that's just for labor. Parts, engines and accessories add even more to the profits.

Because the small engine industry has grown so quickly, an acute shortage of qualified Small Engine Professionals exists throughout the country. In fact, it's not unusual for a good small engine man to be three to four weeks behind in the summer and at least a week behind in the winter. When you see how many small engines are in use today, it's easy to understand why qualified men command such high prices—as much as $17.50 for a simple tune-up that takes less than an hour!

46-million small engines are in service today!

That's right—there are over forty-six million 2-cycle and 4-cycle small engines in service across the U.S.A. That's the official count from the Engine Service Assn., and new engines are being built at a rate of one-million per month! With fully accredited and approved Belsaw training, you can soon have the skill and knowledge to make top money servicing these engines. Homeowners and businessmen will seek you out and pay you well to service and repair their lawnmowers, tillers, edgers, power rakes, garden tractors, chain saws, mini-bikes, go-carts, snowmobiles, generators, snowblowers, paint sprayers...the list is almost endless.

No experience necessary.

You don't need to be a 'born mechanic' or have prior experience. If you can read, you can master this profitable trade right at home, in your sparetime, without missing a single paycheck. Lessons are fully illustrated—so clear you can't go wrong.

Rick Steamboat sets up Baron Von Raschke for an elbowsmash. Steamboat has been very withdrawn for the past few months and everyone that has come in contact with him has noticed the change. Associate Editor Gary Morgenstein believes that Steamboat is being blackmailed.

RICK STEAMBOAT BLACKMAILED?

That report wrenched me from my holiday sabbatical and lured me down the highway toward Greensboro, North Carolina. My source, a middle-aged woman with impeccable reliability, had called and told me something was up with Steamboat. He'd grown reticent, at times surly. His friendliness toward fans had cooled off. I'd heard rumors to that effect from my colleague, Matt Brock. During lunch, he suggested I investigate. The phone call clinched the deal.

During the past few months, Rick Steamboat has changed. I've detected that change and been disturbed by it. I wondered if this change foreshadowed a deeper alteration in style and temperament. His brief pairing with Ric Flair further worried observers. But what really troubled Steamboat admirers was his refusal to explain his decisions.

"I don't have to explain myself to no one," Rick said shortly after he teamed with Flair.

Admittedly, I admire Steamboat as a wrestler and man. Admittedly, my admiration on both counts had decreased. Until I realized he might not be in control of his own destiny. Blackmail requires a why and a who. That was my job.

I approached Steamboat in a diner. He had refused to answer my calls and, frankly, I have no patience for petulant adolescents. Steamboat was digesting a smoking pile of food. I pulled out a chair and forced a smile. Steamboat glanced up, grimaced, and shoveled potatoes into his throat.

"I won't pull punches, Rick," I began. His grimace deepened. "I

Body Slams & Pinfalls

By Dan Shocket

I HAVE NOT come to bury Bobby Heenan but to praise him. Too many people, mostly those who've suffered at Bobby's hands, are saying Heenan is through as a manager. When Bobby's wrestler, Killer Kox, lost the Georgia title to Tommy Rich, the word went out that Heenan's magic was gone. People blamed Heenan for the loss, despite the fact that Kox had some of the best strategies in wrestling history.

There are always vultures circling around a defeat, and this defeat just brought out more of them. These are the people who think Heenan is bad for wrestling and hope to see him driven from the sport. These are the same people who think Tommy Rich's championship is good for wrestling.

These simpletons will be sorry to know that Bobby will soon come back better than ever! I'm not at liberty to say exactly what is being planned by his brilliant mind, but those who've called him finished are in for a rude shock. One could hope the shock would set them to thinking, but these people haven't been in touch with their brains since birth.

I contacted Heenan after Kox's loss, as any friend would. However, I knew Bobby well enough to know doesn't matter, the belt has fallen into disgrace. Can you imagine anyone wanting a title after Rich has won it? Even if the bum did cheat, it's embarrassing to have your name in the record book he'd be down but never out. I was not disappointed.

Dan Shocket feels that Killer Karl Kox (biting above) has been provided with brilliant wrestling strategies by his manager, Bobby Heenan, but since Kox lost the Georgia title to Tommy Rich, Heenan has been unjustly criticized. Shocket believes that if Kox follows Heenan's orders, he will soon regain the title.

"Can you believe Tommy Rich is a champion?" Heenan asked, then laughed. "Just goes to show, the people get what they deserve. He'll lose it soon, but I don't really care. After Rich has had the title, it alongside his. I'm going to ask the NWA if I could have my name removed as Kox's manager on the official record. Tommy Rich. Just goes to prove that a bribed referee can make anyone champion.

"Defeat is part of

Behind the Dressing Room Door

by Stu
Saks

PEDRO MORALES PULLED his lounge chair up one notch and reached for his pina' colada. He might have had one too many because he was beginning to open up a bit.

"Eventually, the feeling will come back to me," he said as he paused to take a large gulp of his drink. "But right now, I'm content. Very content."

It is not difficult to see how Pedro Morales could feel the way he does. Sitting under a palm tree, the sun blared around us. Not a cloud in sight. Eighty-seven degrees. It was summer in Puerto Rico. It was truly December in New York. When I boarded my plane at Kennedy Airport, I thought a lot about Pedro Morales, the man I was assigned to interview. The cold wind in my face made my eyes tear and I thought back to a similar night nine years ago.

February 8, 1971. That night Pedro Morales' life took a complete turn. That night he achieved his life long ambition when his neckbridge pressed Ivan Koloff's shoulders to the mat, after 10 minutes, 41 seconds, he became the fourth WWF champion. Twenty-two thousand fans of all nationalities stood and cheered wildly at Madison Square Garden as the new champ circled the ring, waving the flags of the United States and Puerto Rico. Bruno Sammartino, the man who many of the same fans saw lose the title three weeks earlier after a seven-year reign, wrapped the diamond-studded belt around Pedro's waist.

For two years, nine months, and 23 days, Pedro Morales' life was as it never was before. He WAHOO USED RICH?

I totally agree with Jimmy Snuka's comment in "One on One" (November 1979). Snuka said Wahoo McDaniel used Tommy Rich for his own gain and I concur.

From the first moment Tommy teamed with McDaniel, he lost some of his sparkle and wasn't allowed to be himself. All my friends agree—we're glad that Wahoo McDaniel is gone.

KING IS A JERK

How dare Peter King put down Buddy Rogers. King, in his Editor's Notebook, said that Rogers could no more change his style of wrestling than an alligator can learn to sing opera.

What about a worm who can't learn to write? I think that fits Peter King's disgusting attack on a great man, someone who has devoted his life to advancing wrestling to its position in the world.

Next time King opens his trap, let him use his mind. If he has one.

ELLIOTT LEVY
New York, N.Y.

wrestlers worthy of his direction.

DEFENDING SLATER

I'm a Dick Slater fan and I feel that Dick has not been treated fairly. Journalists don't give him much credit. He deserves more credit than he's gotten.

Dick was Georgia champion for a long time and he defended that title and belt with brilliance. So he's called ruthless and unpredictable in the ring? Well, he'd be a fool to let an opponent know which way he's coming from or what his next move will be.

Dick Slater is a smart and clever wrestler who can dish it out any way they give it to him in the ring.

RUBY MOSLEY

BLESS YOU, CAPTAIN

Those snot-faced Valiants deserve anything they get. They deserve to get dumped by Captain Lou Albano. And the Captain, in his explanation, "Why I Fired The Valiants"

(January 1980), was nicer than he should have been.

The Valiants are ungrateful slobs. The Captain made them what they are. They'll slip back into the pit without Albano.

Hopefully Albano will find

Georgia heavyweight champion TOMMY RICH swears that the gossip circulating about BOBBY HEENAN having him under contract is nothing but a lie. Heenan on the other hand, says he has a contract in his possession that he and Rich jointly signed three years ago.

"It's a 10 year contract," Heenan points out. "If Rich doesn't honor it I'll take him to court, sue the pants off him, and have the Georgia title stripped from that puny little waist of his. I own the Georgia title in reality—not Tommy Rich!"

TOMMY RICH

ERNIE LADD seems to thrive on multi-year feuds. Said Ladd in an interview several years ago, "When I hate an opponent, daddy, I hate 'em forever. I'll never stop tryin' to end the dude's career." That is why we find it very strange that Ernie's feud with hated rival SWEET BROWN SUGAR only lasted one match. After the bout in Florida, Ladd skipped town and no one knows why. Ladd, when quiere about the situation, made a hasty retreat away from our reporters and yelled "stop buggin' me!" A nice guy, Ernie Ladd.

After MANNY FERNANDEZ took the Florida championship from TERRY FUNK, Terry became so enraged that one week later he pulled a sneak attack on Manny and almost broke Fernandez's leg! . . . In another sneak attack, this one in the Mid-Atlantic region, United States champion JIMMY SNUKA and his dispicable manager BUDDY ROGERS went after TIM "MR. WRESTLING" WOODS and nearly broke Tim's neck!

It's not a rumor: RODDY PIPER is being cheered by fans on the West Coast . . . Japanese wrestling magazine editor Wally Yamaguchi reports that the bouts between DUSTY RHODES and ANTONIO INOKI in Japan were some of the finest matches seen in that country in recent years. "The fans were very glad to see Dusty Rhodes after an absence of many years in our country," Yamaguchi said.

Bill Apter

MIL MASCARAS

claims that THE VALIANT BROTHERS are begging to return to him. "They want the Captain to manage them again so they can be successful again," boasts Albano. "Well, daddy, the Captain don't want no part of them. I have got THE SAMOANS, the greatest tag team in history. They are rough, they are tough, they are outta sight! They listen to the Captain so they'll go all the way to the top. All the way!"

Our spies tell us that GREG VALENTINE has already had several dinner meetings with RIC FLAIR (Valentine is trying to persuade Flair to return to the rulebreaking fraternity as reported in an earlier issue). So far Valentine has had no luck, and who knows, you may see a Flair vs. Valentine match before long. Their friendship might not be as iron clad as Valentine thinks it is.

MIL MASCARAS has an upcoming date against VICTOR RIVERA. Mil regrets having to take this match because at one time he and Victor were the best of friends. Rivera anxiously awaits the bout. "How I ever befriended that masked fool is beyond me," he says. "I must have been sick in the head!"... KEVIN VON ERICH is the new Missouri State titleholder after defeating DICK MURDOCH. Kevin and his entire family hope this is a sign of even bigger things to come.

WWF tag team champions IVAN PUTSKI and TITO SANTANA successfully defended their title against former champions JERRY and JOHN VALIANT... SUPERSTAR BILLY GRAHAM is looking as impressive as ever in his Tennessee matches. His recent matches against JERRY LAWLER saw him in one of his toughest tests to date... RICK STEAMBOAT and JAY YOUNGBLOOD gave PAUL JONES and BARON VON RASCHKE a bloody thrashing as the hated duo of Jones and the Baron tried unsuccessfully to regain the NWA tag team belt.

PAT PATTERSON has added

another belt to his collection. Pat took the Americas championship from BULL RAMOS in a highly controversial bout in Hawaii... Young EDDIE GILBERT racking up an impressive victory streak in Missouri... THE ASSASSIN and THE AVENGER continue to dominate Kansas City tag team action.

That's all for now. See you next time. □

COLLECTOR'S CORNER

WRESTLING MAGAZINE

It was simply titled "WRESTLING." And it was the first serious attempt to establish a magazine devoted entirely to professional wrestling which had a regular frequency and a world-wide distribution. Ivan Putski & Tito S R EPORTERS RUSHED TO interview the new WWF tag team champions. Basking in their victory, Ivan Putski and Tito Santana answered all questions. However, most of the questions were directed to Ivan.

When Putski realized what was happening, he tried to guide more questions to his partner. Still, reporters kept coming back to Ivan, wanting the opinions of the more famous grappler of the pair. A look of concern crossed Ivan's face.

"No more questions, please," Ivan finally announced. "The new champions want to go out and celebrate."

As reporters left, Tito wished them all well. The young man was too happy to realize his partner was troubled. However, reporters could see, Putski was worried.

It didn't take a genius to figure out what was troubling Ivan. The veteran grappler knows that it's very difficult to keep a tag team at its best. The strong personality of each wrestler must be molded for the common good. Wrestlers aren't accustomed to working as a team. There is always tension. Often, the tension tears at the team until there's nothing left.

Tito didn't notice that most of the questions were directed toward Ivan. The older wrestler noticed. Also, Ivan knows what happens when one member of a team gets more attention. In a few months, jealousy ruins the team. On the first night of his championship, Ivan realized his title was on shaky grounds.

Other wrestlers realized it, also. Dominic DeNucci, a good friend of the pair, saw the press conference and saw what happened. "I considered saying something to Tito," DeNucci explained, "but there's nothing to say. He's in a bad situation. No wrestler can stand being in a tag team partner's shadow. No matter how you try to stop the jealousy, it eats at you like a disease. That's what the teams that survive are the teams of equals. Sooner or later, Tito is going to be hurt. Then he'll get angry. Finally, he'll destroy the team.

Tito Santana keeps a watchful eye on the Valiants' corner as he holds Johnny in an armbar. Many of the Valiants' opponents have lost their chance to win the WWF belts by not being alert to interference from the champions' corner.

The moment Ivan Putski and Tito Santana won the WWF tag team title the media focused its attention on the more experienced, more renown Putski. Santana went virtually unnoticed. How long will it be before Santana begins to resent his partner?

"Look, they're my friends. I hope they get lucky. I hope Tito can work it out. I know Ivan will try his damndest to make this work. I really hope I'm wrong and these guys remain champions forever."

Another friend, Chief Jay Strongbow, believes the most important factor is beyond their Ivan Putski puts all of his enormous strength into a bearhug on Jerry Valiant. The referee has his attention on the action in the ring and also the attempt by Johnny to free his brother. Putski and Santana overcame the Valiants' double-teaming efforts to win the tag team title.

PAUL ORNDORFF

Fans were treated to a rare match: two men wrestling cleanly and fairly, using only the most advanced scientific maneuvers known. These two upstanding grapplers were Dick Slater and Paul Orndorff. Their bout was a textbook example of scientific wrestling. Slater's maneuvers proved slightly better than Orndorff's, garnering him the win.

OTHER BOUTS: Robert Fuller beat Jimmy Golden . . . Andre the Giant and the Mongolian Stomper discharged Ox Baker and Alexis Smirnoff . . . Ron Fuller and the French Angel were both counted out.

IVAN PUTSKI

The master of the figure-four leglock, Greg Valentine, took on the Polish Power of Ivan Putski. This match was truly amazing. Valentine was vicious and mean, while Putski was just great. Valentine tried everything he knew, including the figure-four leglock, but Putski managed to win.

OTHER BOUTS: Ted DiBiase drew with Hussein Arab . . . Larry Zbyszko whipped Jose Estrada . . . Johnny Rodz drew with Johnny Rivera . . . Tito Santana downed Gypsy Rodriguez . . . Pete Sanchez drew with Steve King.

DEWEY ROBERTSON

AWA champion Nick Bockwinkel had everything to lose and nothing to gain when he met Dewey Robertson in a title bout. In a previous non-title bout, Robertson had won a clear-cut victory. From the opening bell, both men fought like they had minutes to live. Finally, Robertson snared Bockwinkel in a figure-four grapevine—with only a minute before curfew—but Nick outlasted the bell for a draw.

OTHER BOUTS: Jimmy Snuka used a foreign object to steal a victory from Ric Flair . . . The Destroyer triumphed over Klondike Bill . . . Jay Youngblood and Johnny Weaver edged by Bruté Bernard and The Scorpion.

BARON VON RASCHKE

A Texas death match, sanctioned by the NWA, seized Ric Flair and Baron Von Raschke in its fiendish potentiality. Both men wrestled viciously and hard. The match seemed to last forever. Eventually Flair, bloodied and battered, emerged victorious.

OTHER BOUTS: Paul Jones toppled Jay Youngblood... Rufus R. Jones won by disqualification over Dewey Robertson... Gene Anderson and Brute Bernard halted Tony Garea and Don Kernodle... Abe Jacobs and Charlie Fulton drew.

HUSSEIN ARAB

This was a really exciting match. Bob Backlund absorbed an awful lot of punishment from Hussein Arab. But he responded to every move with brilliant counter-maneuvers. For a while, it appeared Backlund might lose the title. Finally, Backlund grabbed control of the bout and tossed Arab out of the ring, where he was counted out.

OTHER BOUTS: Ted DiBiase crushed Jim Valiant... Swede Hanson bombed Johnny Rivera... In a few seconds, Tony Atlas defeated Moose Monroe.

SWEET BROWN SUGAR

Tonight, a man's dream came true! Sweet Brown Sugar has long sought a title match with NWA champion Harley Race and this evening he got his wish. Sugar's inexperience and impatience got him the belt. After a series of headbutts, dropkicks and flips, Sweet Brown Sugar threw Race over the top rope and was instantly disqualified.

OTHER BOUTS: Eddie Graham, Steve Keirn, and Ray Stevens belted Mr. Hito, Mr. Sakurada, and Killer Kahn... Jerry Brisco won by disqualification over Buggy McGraw... Steve Travis and Jerry Roberts defeated Thor the Viking and the Masked Terror. □

WHERE ARE THEY NOW?

Each day, out of the thousands of letters we receive, hundreds of them are from fans asking the whereabouts of their favorite wrestler. In this special column, we will try to answer the questions you ask the most!

GREG VALENTINE

The sadistic master of the figure-four leglock is currently wreaking havoc in Japan, where knowledgeable fans find him as distasteful as American fans do. Rumors persist, however, that Valentine is returning to the Mid-Atlantic area and wants to team again with Ric Flair.

TONY ATLAS

This massive, hulking fan favorite has recently entered the WWF. Displeased with the way rulebreakers shatter limbs and regulations, Atlas is determined to rid the WWF of such men and carve a wide path to the top. Insiders whisper he craves a shot against Bob Backlund.

DINO BRAVO

Bravo's signature was hardly dry on the contract bringing him into the AWA when various rulebreakers announced they would drive Bravo right back out. Similar threats have failed in the past and Bravo is resolved to challenge Nick Bockwinkel for the AWA crown.

PAMPERO FIRPO

The wild man is destroying arenas, careers, and fans' faith in matches down in Puerto Rico. Please reach across both oceans in an effort to find a man able to control Firpo. As yet, no one can stop him.

HAS ERNIE LADD MADE STAN HANSEN A RULEBREAKER AGAIN?

Ernie Ladd's evil knows no boundaries. He exploits any weakening in a scientific wrestler's resolve and tries to warp and twist the poor victim to his own demented philosophy. Stan Hansen recently fell to Ladd's poisons

A HARSH LAUGHTER filled the dressing room. Ernie Ladd sat on the training table, his gargantuan body looming over all. For a man who'd just been disqualified, he was in a very good mood.

"So much for the new Stan Hansen!" Ernie roared. "I knew he was the same guy underneath. He turned fan favorite, strictly a scientific wrestler. Ha! I knew he was the kind of guy who'd murder his grandmother for a victory. I proved it!

"They said he wouldn't use the Lariat anymore. Too dangerous. It wasn't a maneuver any scientific wrestler would use. Well, he used it tonight! How do Stan's fans explain that?

"Did you see what he did to me tonight. Before I could ever get my jacket off, he attacked me from behind! Do 'scientific' wrestlers do that? Then, during the match, he used every dirty trick in the book. Finally, when he knew I had him beaten, he used the Lariat. Well, he didn't break my neck with it, though he tried hard enough. All

KEN PATERA:

"I BEAT BACKLUND AND BRUNO BOTH ON ONE NIGHT!"

INTERVIEW CONDUCTED BY STEVE FARHOOD

CONTROVERSY STALKS HIM from area to area. No matter what he does, his every word and deed is tinged with discord. He entered wrestling on the winds of promise. Everyone who saw him predicted superstardom as a scientific wrestler. Somewhere in the clouds he lost it. Changed course, direction and ended up propelled by black thunder clouds dispersing terror wherever he went. He won a title, the Mid-Atlantic championship. Now he has returned north to do battle with Bob Backlund. He is mean. He is talented. He is Ken Patera.

Q: Ken, welcome aboard.

A: Yeah, get on with it.

Q: Is something wrong?

A: Just ask the damn questions.

Typical of the press and fans. Whenever it seems that Ken Patera has a legitimate gripe, everyone leaves the room. No one can stand to see me look good.

Q: You seem upset.

A: I don't like four-eyed reporters, okay? You'll ask your questions, I'll give intelligent answers and you'll twist and rip my quotes apart to fit your own stupid thought. So ask the stupid questions.

Q: All right. First off, what happened in the Mid-Atlantic area.

A: What do you mean?

Q: I mean, you lost your title.

A: So?

Q: Doesn't that bother you?

A: Why should it? Brunzell stole the title. I have proof that he paid off the ref.

Q: What kind of proof?

A: Proof, just proof. When I'm good and ready, I'll deliver the proof that Jim Brunzell is a liar and thief and he stole my belt. But only when I'm good and ready, dig?

Q: Why don't we go on to another topic?

A: Oh, now you want to change the subject, huh? Typical of the press and fans. Whenever it seems that Ken Patera has a legitimate gripe, everyone

I've decided to give Sammartino and Backlund another chance. I'm gracious. I beat both Backlund and Bruno in one night and now I'm giving them a chance to get even.

leaves the room. No one can stand to see me look good.

Q: Why did you leave the Mid-Atlantic area?

A: No competition. A bunch of bums like Brunzell, Steamboat, and Flair are not worthy of my attention. Only guy with any brains down there is Buddy Rogers and maybe Jimmy Snuka. Rest of them are stiff.

Q: That the only reason.

A: Course not. I'm a lot more complex than that.

Q: Then why are you returning to the WWF?

A: I've decided to give Sammartino and Backlund another chance. I'm gracious. I beat both Backlund and Bruno in one night and now I'm giving them a chance to get even.

Q: You beat Sammartino and Backlund in one evening? When did this happen?

A: Uh, a while ago.

Q: There any pictures?

A: No, there were no photographers.

Q: Uh-huh. I never heard of that night.

A: Who are you, Zeus? You hear of everything? You know when a child cries in Bolivia? You know how deep Lake Erie is? What kind of fool are you?

Q: Enough to know that you didn't beat those two.

A: And why do you say that?

Q: Hey, who's doing this interview?

A: This is important. So I don't have any pictures and can't remember the dates too well. If Sammartino were sitting here, would you call him a liar to his face? No. Would you call Howdy Doody a liar to his face? No. Only Ken Patera gets this rotten treatment. I'm fed up with your lousy double standard.

Q: Calm down.

A: Go to hell. I'm tired of this garbage and it better stop. Already the publicity is being leveled against me. Come and see Ken Patera get his rear kicked around the Garden by Backlund. I can't get a break no how.

Q: If we can get a little more rational. Why did you ask the Grand Wizard to manage you?

I’m here for all the power
I can accumulate. I enjoy wiping the floor with someone and running my fingers through his blood. Nothing exhilarates me quite like hearing my opponent screaming with pain.

A: Because he’s the only one with enough intelligence to understand me. I’ve had a lot of managers who couldn’t begin to grasp my complex strategies. With the Wiz, I only have to think about my next move and he knows. It’s great.

Q: Are you only after Backlund or do you have some sort of vendetta to carry out against others?

A: (Grins) Like?

Q: Well, informed sources say you want to end Sammartino’s career.

A: Sammartino’s career ended years ago. That hairy animal is living on past glory. It wouldn’t take much for me to put him in a hospital. All I’d have to do is squeeze a little bit and he’d break.

Q: Then you do want to wrestle Sammartino?

Patera, a former Olympic weightlifter, has tremendously powerful thighs. Above: Ken drives his knee into WWF champion Bob Backlund’s chest. Below: Patera gets a tremendous lift in kneeling Backlund in the chin.

A: Depends on what kind of money they’re talking about.

Q: Is that the only reason you’re in wrestling, for the money?

A: Definitely not. I’m here for all the power I can accumulate. I enjoy wiping the floor with someone and running my fingers through his blood. Nothing exhilarates me quite like hearing my opponent screaming in pain. What more could I want?

Q: Do you have any real friends in wrestling?

A: It’s hard to have real friendships when everyone is jealous of me. I know that sooner or later, they’ll stab me in the back.

Q: Ken, that wraps it up. Thanks for coming by.

A: You gonna print this the way I said it?

Q: Every word.

A: Make sure you do. □

Jimmy Snuka now reveals that even while he was a scientific wrestler, he observed and studied the moves of former rulebreaker Ric Flair.
Snuka has become U.S. champion and has given the credit to Flair.
Ric wants no part of it

Jimmy Snuka Admits...

RIC FLAIR MADE ME U.S. CHAMPION!

HIS PAST STALKS him like a blackmailing phone call. No matter how many times Ric Flair pays his debt, the negatives of yesterday's evil still exist. Whether it is doubt about his motives or questions about his integrity, Flair cannot shake the past.

"I wonder if anyone will ever forgive me for what I've done," Flair says, shaking his head.

Compounding Flair's problems are those who use him as a role model. Not for good, but for evil. That is what Jimmy Snuka does. Snuka says Flair has helped him. Snuka says Flair has made him U.S. champion.

An invitation to Snuka's private office is an unnerving experience. Voodoo dolls occupy an entire shelf on the rear wall. Angling to that is a white wall, blank save for pictures of hellish torment in dazzling color. A small, metal desk with a large, stuffed chair rests against the far wall. A spear with a red tip is off to the left side of the desk. A metal head with ghoulish silver eyes and a hair-lip sits against Snuka's right elbow. A quick glance makes it difficult to distinguish between Snuka and the head.

His right hand flicks out and motions to a bridge chair. Snuka waits until the visitor is seated, then he leans forward, hands clenched, eyes narrowed in growing hostility.

"You want information?" Snuka asks, dispensing with an Ric Flair comes full force with an elbowsmash to Jimmy Snuka's throat. The tactics Flair used as a rulebreaker have made Jimmy Snuka what he is today.

affirmative nod. He sips on some soda as his eyes drift, though they still brim with contempt. "My inspiration is Ric Flair. Once, when Flair was a real man and not the idiot shell he is now, Flair was a great wrestler.

"I'll never forget seeing him against Rick Steamboat. Ah, the way he made Steamboat cry and bleed. That was heaven. And the way he flipped people over and always kept opponents off guard. When you wrestled Ric Flair, you never knew what to expect," Snuka paused, sipped and shifted his gaze directly on the interviewer's face.

"Flair left a great legacy. If you wonder why I speak of him like he's gone, well, I've decided to tackle him and once I attack someone, well, they are goners. Finished.

"So I focus on what Flair accomplished before he turned sour and before I ended his career. He was an inspiration to us all. I saw in him the true way to wrestle. He was mean, tough, rugged. He never quit. He never backed away from a fight.

"And, like all great men, he surrounded himself with

The Funks Ask The Fans:

"HELP US BAN DUSTY RHODES!"

"See this, here, look at it." Funk waved the picture in front of his chest, causing the photo to blur. Finally, he calmed his trembling hand long enough to permit a perusal.

In the photo, Terry Funk was flat on his back, blood gushing from his forehead. His foe's legs were visible up to the knee, then the picture cut off the rest of his body.

brandished it about his skull. This one showed Dory Funk Jr. struggling to his feet, crimson liquid pouring down his face, blinding him.

"All these pictures, all of them," Funk tossed a back-handed gesture at the 50 or so pictures on the sofa, "every

Terry and Dory Funk Jr. have tried everything they could to eliminate Dusty Rhodes from wrestling. Or so it seemed. Now they are striking right at the heart of Dusty's career. They are asking the fans to ban the "American Dream"

DICK MURDOCH

Weary of the referee, Dick Murdoch moves his grip from Cyclone Negro's throat to his chin. Murdoch has gained a reputation as one of the sport's toughest brawlers. He will not back down from anyone.

MANY CONSIDER HIM two-faced and untrustworthy ("I go with the flow of things. I ain't got no patience for morons who talk through their armpits") . . . Presently holds the Missouri State title, a traditional springboard for NWA champion ("Yeah, I know the history. I can't do much about it unless that spineless wimp Race stops runnin' from me") . . . A tough brawler wherever and whom-ever he faces ("It's in my nature, toughin' things out. I don't step back from a fight and I ain't got any respect for a wimp who does, like Dory Funk Jr.") . . . Feud with

Dory Funk Jr. is reaching dangerous proportion ("I aim to settle matters with Funk once and for all. I hope his brother Terry tries to interfere 'cause I'll break his skull into a million pieces") . . . Another recent rivalry is with Bruiser ("Bruiser is another big-mouth who ain't got the guts or talent to back himself up") . . . Fans either adore or loathe him ("I wrestle the same, no matter if people are shoutin' for me or against me. I can't be bothered with such stuff") . . . Insiders contend that Murdoch is secretly jealous of former Outlaws' partner Dusty Rhodes ("Rhodes does his thing and I do mine. No reason for hostility"). □

When Murdoch wrestles rulebreakers like Baron Von Raschke, he usually receives the fans' support. Murdoch, who holds the Missouri State title, is currently feuding with Dory Funk Jr. and The Bruiser.

DESPICABLE LOU ALBANO STOOOPS TO A NEW LOW

THE GRUESOME, EVIL face glared into the camera. His thick hand reached up and destroyed the lens. Apparently, Captain Lou Albano thought he had demolished the film as well. Little did he realize we knew who broke into our office and ruined the Bob Backlund-Ivan Putski Most Favorite Contest.

We got the goods on you,

Albano. You thought we wouldn't realize who had changed ballots on us so Lou Albano won the contest. Give us a little more credit than that.

Seemingly, Lou Albano heard of our contest. We didn't know he could read. Well, the Captain is chock full of surprises. He couldn't bear to see either Backlund or Putski receive publicity. Thus, he masterminded this fiendish escape.

Lou Albano managed to disconnect our burglar alarm. Obviously, Albano has considerable experience in such matters. Following that, Albano allegedly replaced the legitimate ballots submitted by fans across the nation with ballots showing Albano winning most popular as a write-in candidate.

Since the ballots were in our care, we accept full responsibility for their loss. For that reason, both Backlund and Putski are out of this month's Most Popular list. We apologize to both men and all the fans who entered this contest which was ruined forever by Lou Albano. □

ONE ON

(Nothing is quite as tragic as a partnership dissolved in acidic hate. Precisely that venomous liquid covers Captain Lou Albano and Johnny Valiant. The breakup of Albano and the Valiant Brothers jolted wrestling. Vile recriminations from both camps flood the world of wrestling. Despite efforts of friends to bring them together, Albano and the Valiants swore eternal mutual hatred. By the magic of video-phone, these two enemies are brought face-to-face, Albano from his retreat in upstate New York, Johnny Valiant in his plush California vacation home.)

LOU ALBANO: Well, Valiant, you found your way to the phone.

JOHNNY VALIANT: Think I

JV: We made you, creep, and don't you ever forget it, chump. The Valiants show class and the Valiants show skill, man. We don't need to stoop down to the gutter..

LA: Why not? That's where you live.

JV: Who won the title, fats, huh, dig where I'm comin' from? Your fat butt didn't do nothin' for us, dig? Me and my brothers did all the work and you got all the glory. Later to that, man.

LA: You saying I didn't do any work? Why, you ungrateful leech. I spent hours planning strategy you couldn't understand. Then I broke down each instruction to its simplest level and you cretins still couldn't understand my brilliance. I was the one who got attacked and . . .

JV: You got attacked, man? You ran away at the first sign of trouble.

LA: When?

JV: Every time we were in trouble, man, you backed out the door, shaking that ugly head of yours and whining. me and my brothers took the beatings.

LA: You took whipping 'cause you were too slow to get out of the way and too dumb to think your way out of trouble. Who'll think for you now?

JV: No one.

Matt Brock's PLAIN SPEAKING

MEMPHIS, TENN.: Spring comes early to the South. Skirts shorten. Long sleeves retreat to the elbows. And an old man remembers when. Enough of this sentimental stuff. Before long, I'll be babbling about Crazy Irma and those wonderful picnics near the Hudson River. Takes awhile for the old mind to thaw out. What lures me to Memphis is not Irma or bourbon (a little lie), but Superstar Graham. I'd heard rumors he was almost nice to fans and foes. Graham nice? We were never on good terms. I always thought him a loud-mouthed creep and he thought me a sarcastic simp. I tentatively phoned him. Incredibly, he was gracious. Graham has apparently mellowed. Not entirely. He's still as tough as they come, yet willing to see the other guy's point of view. Except when it comes to picking up the check.

ORLANDO, FLA.: His name is Sweet Brown Sugar. In my opinion, he's the most exciting wrestler to hit Florida since, well, in a long time. His aerial maneuvers left me gasping. They nearly left Harley Race without the NWA belt. Sugar, or Sweets, as friends call him, came storming out. One-two, look out, a dropkick. Three four, a flying bodypress. Five six, three more kicks. Race is stunned. So is the crowd. However, impatience infects Sweets and he kicks aside the chance of a lifetime. In his eagerness to complete the victory, Sweets tosses Race over the top rope, an immediate disqualification under NWA rules. I hesitantly approached Sugar afterwards. I expected him to be distraught. I expected some chair throwing and some swearing and general loud petulance. I found none of that. Sugar has as much class outside the ring as he does inside. He freely admitted his deep disappointment at the outcome of the bout and credited his youthful eagerness with the unfortunate result. But the kid is determined and he's talented. If I were Race, I'd be looking over my shoulder at this flying contender.

SUPERSTAR GRAHAM

CHARLESTON, S.C.: What gives with Rick Steamboat? Always friendly and open, Steamboat has retreated into a somewhat surly shell in recent months. It started with his bizarre partnership with Ric Flair, a hated rival. People questioned Steamboat about that decision. Basically, Steamboat said it was his business. Fine. Then it's the public's business not to care about you, little Ricky. Wise up, Steamboat. Or better yet, grow up. Wrestlers must learn that they have an insatiable public to deal with. I'm not saying answering questions is simple. But when fans have supported you in the manner of Steamboat's legions, you better come up with some hard responses. Steamboat refuses to open up. He was a nice kid. Once upon a time, anyway. Perhaps success is getting to him. If so, Steamboat may discover no one will listen to him once he condescends to talk to us.

NEW YORK, N.Y.: Well, well, look who's back. A Brock favorite, hah-hah. Mr. Personality. Mr. Ego. The one and only Ken Patera. The muscled clod is back and challenging Backlund. Patera should've stayed in the Mid-Atlantic area. Either Bruno or Backlund will bash Patera from one end to the other. All Patera has is a big mouth and blemished potential. Give Patera two months in the WWF and he'll be wandering in search of an area. And Patera better not trust the Grand Wizard. That shyster manager would sell Patera out for a bag of wheat. □

RUMOR VS. FACT

RUMOR: West Coast pretty boy Eddy Mansfield will be the first centerfold in a new monthly magazine which will feature naked wrestlers and their pets!

FACT: Mansfield is an egomaniac who claims to be the best-looking man on this planet. About a week's worth of old-fashioned investigative reporting (thanks to Gary Morgenstein for the help) revealed that this wild rumor originated from the desk of Mansfield's press secretary, Frankie "Front-Page" DiMacafoy. There are no plans for the printing of such a publication. Although, in

Although Andre the Giant has a love for boxing, he says he will remain a wrestler. Above: Andre defeats New Jersey boxing champion Chuck Wepner in a wrestler vs. boxer match at Shea Stadium

Los Angeles, anything is possible!

RUMOR: Motivated by the actions of former football star Ed "Too Tall" Jones, wrestling great Andre the Giant is considering a new career in pro boxing.

FACT: Several readers have written to me concerning this story. Fans of Andre, do not fret! While the Superstar is fascinated by the squared circle's "other sport," he does not plan to quit wrestling.

"I really think I'd make a very competent boxer," the Giant commented. "My reach is quite extraordinary, and I have a helluva right cross. I briefly chatted with some of the top boxing trainers, but I weighed boxing against wrestling, and the move became less appetizing. Maybe I'll settle for a 15-round slugfest with Ernie Ladd instead."

INJURY REPORT

In one of the sickest, most devilish stunts I have ever had the misfortune to witness, Georgia maniac Karl Kox borrowed the lit cigar of manager Bobby Heenan to attack Tommy Rich! Kox pressed the burning end of the cigar into Rich's forehead, and a horrible gash was opened. Luckily, Rich will not have to undergo cosmetic surgery. I wish someone would grab one of Heenan's lit cigars and shove it . . . Well, you know what I mean.

That's it for now. Catch you later. ☐

To the press, Ivan denies that there is any shred of jealousy. However, a friend, who prefers to remain anonymous, reports,

"To tell you the truth, I'm not all that worried. Tito is a really exceptional guy. He's growing in the championship. Every match he gains more stature. Sure he's having some tough times. ON THE ROAD

With his left foot holding Blackjack Mulligan's left foot to the mat, Rick Steamboat stretches the Texan's body into an awkward position. Is there any truth to the theory that Rick is being blackmailed? His mood over the past month has indicated that something is wrong. Gary Morgenstein almost lost his life investigating the possibility.

think someone's pulling your string and well," I paused. Steamboat was glaring at me. Behind his eyes, I saw pain. And truth.

"Yeah," his voice was flat. Kind of punctured, as if he were relieved someone finally mentioned it. Still, wariness captured his face. Despite the twitch in his eyes and the painful stare, Steamboat wouldn't talk.

I had to ask him. Maybe I'd get lucky, I'm not sure. But I had to ask the question.

"Are you being blackmailed, Rick?"

His mouth dropped. I could tell he would deny it. Yet I couldn't deny the pleading in his eyes. Someone had reached him good. He shook his head and looked away. I had my answer. Half of it, anyway. It was up to me to find out what that mysterious person or persons had on Steamboat and how I could extricate him.

This could be dangerous. For both of us.

Where to begin? Who would benefit from a unpopular Rick Steamboat? Would it be a rulebreaker exacting hideous vengeance? Or a struggling scientific wrestler jealous of Rick's immense popularity?

I sat in my Honda and pulled out the pad. Several names demanded attention. Jimmy Snuka? Ken Patera? Paul Jones? Ric Flair? Greg Valentine? Buddy Rogers? Jay Youngblood? Each of these seven men had reason to injure Steamboat.

Jimmy Snuka despises Steamboat because manager Rogers hypnotized him into hatred. Steamboat is everything Snuka never was or can ever be. Ken Patera has always hated Steamboat. Paul Jones still steams from his aborted partnership with Steamboat. Jones claims Steamboat got all the credit for none of the work. Supposedly, Flair has forgotten and forgiven the violent feud with Steamboat. Or had he? Doubts remain about Flair. Was he simply lulling Steamboat into false security and trust? How about Valentine? Why was he coming back to the Mid-Atlantic area? I didn't buy him being forced out by Sammartino. Rogers? Doesn't Rogers look at young Steamboat and see himself Steamboat knocks Jimmy Snuka off balance with a karate chop to the neck. Snuka is a prime suspect as Steamboat's blackmailer since being hypnotized into hatred by Buddy Rogers.

15 years ago. Doesn't that infuriate him the way Ric Flair incenses him? Even Jay Youngblood. Steamboat's record with partners isn't good. Has jealousy and strife invaded the quarters of the new Mid-Atlantic tag team champs?

Immersed in thought, I stumbled out of the car, pad in hand, pencil loose in left fist. At the last second, I dove away from the screeching Chevy headed straight toward me. Tumbling in the gravel of the parking lot, I caught only a brief glimpse of the stocky, dark-haired man behind the wheel.

I didn't recognize him, but I knew he was the blackmailer. ☐ wrestling. After awhile, you learn to accept it. You never get to like it, but you accept it. Look, I don't care what people say, I'm coming back and I'll be better than ever. They've banned me, shackled me, gagged me, and I've still produced winners. They can do everything but stop me.

"And they won't stop Kox, either. He's one of the greatest wrestlers I've ever worked with, and I've worked with the best. That is, after they were with me they became the best. Kox is the same way. Right now, he's as good as any wrestler alive. I'm not exaggerating. Mark my words, Killer Kox will own the NWA before 1983. That's a Bobby Heenan promise!

"You know, people like Jack Brisco, Tommy Rich and Dusty Rhodes are always saying I'm finished. You'd think they'd get tired of predicting my doom, only to have me come back bigger than ever. I'm the man responsible for Ray Stevens and Nick Bockwinkel becoming the best tag team in history. I guided Nick Bockwinkel to the AWA championship. Yes, it was my genius that allowed him to defeat Verne Gagne. No one can tell me I'm finished."

I believe it. Heenan has one of the best minds in wrestling. Nothing can stop him from coming back better than ever.

As for Tommy Rich, he'll give the fans just what they want. Pardon me if I don't applaud. His incompetence, which he calls "scientific wrestling," will please those who like their wrestlers nice and stupid. Rich won't take risks, explore new ideas, or add anything to the knowledge of wrestling. Whereas Kox, under Heenan's guidance, brought wrestling to new heights, explored new directions, and made each match an adventure. For that, the fans booed him. They won't boo Tommy Rich.

The success of Tommy Rich shows how bleak the wrestling scene has become. A few years ago, the so-called rulebreakers dominated the sport. Superstar Billy Graham was champion, Lou Albano had a series of brilliant tag team grapplers, and Nick Bockwinkel was just beginning his title reign. Today, Graham struggles, Albano and the Valiants are feuding publicly, and Bockwinkel barely manages to retain his belt. From the best of times we've gone to the worst of times.

In those glory days, I would have laughed at anyone who said I'd someday have to take Tommy Rich seriously. Now, this column mourns his championship. We can only hope for better days.

Happily, with men like Bobby Heenan around, those days are right around the corner. □

BEHIND THE DOOR

was one of the most successful champions in the history of the sport. He defended the belt at least 15 times a month under the most difficult of circumstances. Not only did Pedro have to battle the memory of Bruno Sammartino, but the absence of "The Living Legend" also attracted some of the sport's most vicious rulebreakers in quest of what they figured to be an easy championship. Pedro Morales proved them all wrong.

"I thought that nothing could be harder than working your way through the ranks for a title shot," Pedro said searching for his drink. "You take a lot of lumps working your way up. But once you win that title, forget it. First of all, everybody wants you to defend the belt in their arena. You can't say no if you're really a champion. Secondly, the dangers are extraordinary. Every thug in wrestling is gunning for you. Being champion was the best and worst thing that ever happened to me."

Pedro lost the title to Stan Stasiak in Philadelphia December 10, 1973. And since that time he has challenged for the WWF title only once, when Superstar Graham brought the belt to Florida. "I won the match, but I didn't win the title," Morales recalled. "And you know Stu, I'm glad I didn't. I had that urge to be champion again at the time, but I'm not sure I really had the desire needed to be a good champion."

One more pina' colada and a lot more of Pedro's inner feelings began to emerge. "It's coming back, man, I can feel it," he proclaimed. "This place is great. The weather. My family. The best pina' coladas anywhere, but I'm getting restless. I'm wrestling a lot, but there are no titles down here to shoot for."

Within a span of just a few minutes, Pedro's attitude seemed to change completely. I'm quite sure Pedro was talking and not the pina' coladas. I can only hope so. The look in his eyes clearly showed me that despite living here in his apparent Shangri-la, something important was missing from his life.

And I would not be at all surprised if he came back to the States and put up a serious challenge for one of the three major wrestling federation titles. In fact, I would be surprised if he didn't. ☐

★ THE ORIGINAL ★ ★ WRESTLING REVUE ★

All the back issues of the ORIGINAL WRESTLING REVUE listed for sale in this advertisement were edited and published by Stanley Weston, who founded Wrestling Revue in 1959 and sold his interests in the magazine in 1964. These extremely rare back issues have not been available to the public in almost 15 years, although many have been sold by private collectors for as much as 75 dollars per copy. This is a rare opportunity for those of you who collect and treasure truly fine wrestling magazines of great historic importance, at a price you can afford. Most of these issues contain magnificent, full color pin up portraits of the world's greatest wrestlers, some of whom are still active. The supply of these collector's treasures is very limited, so order today and avoid disappointment.

is how Flair influenced me. He showed me how to wrestle and how to win. Yes, winning is all that counts.

"Flair was a winner, as I am. And I am indebted to him. Isn't it a shame that we can never be partners? Well, maybe he will change his mind in time," Snuka said, shrugging. For a brief moment, regret crossed his face. It evaporated, as all decent emotions evaporate from this man's face, quickly and without impact.

genuine talent. He was friends with Greg Valentine, Ken Patera, and John Studd. Those are great men. All of them are great. They motivated me.

"I was still living blind, as I call it, that period before Buddy and Ken showed me the light. I used to hate Flair and his kind. I was afraid of them, I admit that now.

Like all scientific wrestlers, I had no courage. I was frightened of really messing around in the ring and going all out," Snuka said, his voice a crashing wave of hostility.

"Once Rogers taught me how to wrestle properly, I was on the right path. All that remained was my lighting the torch. That he did was break his word!

"Stan Hansen is a rulebreaker from the top of his pointy head to the bottom of his flat feet. He might be able to fool you dummies, but I always knew better. I used to be Hansen's tag team partner. I knew him better than he knew himself. It makes me sick to see him cheered by moron fans. Hansen belong in my corner, not against me.

Ernie Ladd provoked Stan Hansen into attacking him before the opening bell.

to become a scientific wrestler, I laughed. I'm still laughing. It didn't take much to make him to crazy, did it?"

Actually, it took a great deal for Stan Hansen to revert back to his rulebreaking maneuvers. From the moment Ladd signed to wrestle Hansen, Ernie embarked on a psychological assault that would make any brainwasher green with envy.

Hansen goes for a pin, but Ladd pulled him off by his trunks.

For weeks, Ladd mercilessly taunted his opponent. He used every trick in the book. He called Hansen a coward, a traitor, and a toady to the promoters. Ladd does know Hansen very well. Ernie knew just where to aim his barbs.

At first, Hansen said Ladd's insults didn't hit home. Stan laughed in the beginning. Then the laughter turned hollow, and it turned ugly. Eventually, the laughter stopped altogether. Every time Ladd opened his mouth, Hansen reacted as if he'd been hit by a dart.

Finally, at an interview two nights before the match, Hansen started screaming. "I'll break Ladd in two!" Stan shouted. "I'll drive him of Georgia! He's the lowest of the low. I won't rest until I've seen him carted away on a stretcher!"

Then Stan froze. He knew what he sounded like. Those were the words Stan Hansen used to use when he was a rulebreaker. Ernie was already winning and the match hadn't even started!

By the time of the bout, Stan was crazed with hatred. Stan could barely contain his rage as he waited for Ladd to enter the ring. When Ernie stepped through the ropes, Hansen leaped at his foe. When the attack was over, Ladd smiled and shouted, "Is this how scientific wrestlers behave?"

Hansen was beyond control. When he stormed from his corner, Stan was more animal than human. He didn't bother with maneuvers one usually associates with wrestling. Stan used tactics he learned in the streets, in alleys, and anyplace else two people meet to destroy each other. Ladd handled him for the first few minutes, then Ernie bowed to the assault. Stan's assault put Ernie on the defensive. Ladd began to wonder if he'd gone too far. Hansen wanted to kill!

The match got uglier, more brutal. Fans were shocked into silence. Eventually, momentum took over the proceedings, forcing the action. Before it happened, everyone could sense that events would force Hansen to use the Lariat. Finally, Stan broke his word, betrayed himself and used the Lariat on Ernie Ladd.

It was the most heartbreaking moment in wrestling history.

The match didn't end there. The action continued for another few minutes. The conclusion came when the referee disqualified Ladd for choking. However, in the battle of wills, Ladd was the conclusive winner.

Hansen trembled with rage as he rushed back to the dressing room. Somehow, somehow, he would get revenge.

Tonight, however, Ernie Ladd was triumphant. Even if the rulebooks say he lost by disqualification. ☐

WE'RE FIGHTING FOR YOUR LIFE

The Funks

single one shows what Dusty Rhodes has done to the Funk family.

"Well, Mr. American Dream, we got the proof on you and your time is over and out, baby. We are gonna get your fat butt banned and we want the fans, our loyal fans who know all there is about wrestling, to help us out in this great mission of ours," Funk yelled, slumping into a chair.

Terry Funk agonizes in the dressing room while awaiting medical attention following a match with Dusty Rhodes. Terry and his brother, Dory Jr., are asking the fans to demand that Dusty be banned from wrestling.

For years, the Funk have been bitterly disdainful of wrestling fans. They have sneered at fans who offered advice. They have refused to listen to pleas to calm down and be more receptive to fan desires. In short, why should wrestling fans help the Funks?

"Cause we got a common enemy, that's why. Rhodes has attacked our family from one end to the other," said Dory. "He's gettin' away with it 'cause he's blinded the fans. They don't see what kind of coward he really is.

"The Funks know his little game and the jig is up, as we say," Dory continued. "This is why Terry had to defend himself against Rhodes in Orlando."

Terry stiffened as his brother uttered those fateful words. After months of speculation, the real reason for Terry Funk's "attack and interference" was revealed.

"Yeah, I consider it self-defense," Terry said casually. "I had to defend myself against Rhodes. Look it, you can't let people push you around. A man gotta stand up for himself and not let someone like Rhodes spit in his face.

"That Dream has done more to disgrace wrestling, Texas, and the Funk family than I thought possible. His day is over, man. And only the fans can help us get rid of Rhodes once and for all."

"We want the fans to show they're behind us one hundred and eighty five percent," Funk shouted, rising off the sofa. "We want fans to write into the magazine telling who they prefer, us or the great bleached whale. Our loyal fans can either write in, come to the matches and yell at Rhodes, or call us up. Whatever way, we want the bleached whale banned.

"Right away, before he makes us all ashamed to be wrestlers."

As journalists, we constantly shirk from taking sides. Once we inject subjectivity into our stories, we lose all our credibility. How can fans believe us if they must wonder whose side we're on?

That's why we gave Terry and Dory space in this magazine. It's up to you, the fans, to decide who's right. And who stays in professional wrestling. □

SINCERELY YOURS

FUNK IS A BUM

I'm feeling much better about the world now that Matt Brock conducted that sizzling Hotseat interview with Terry Funk in your last issue. Matt really stuck it to Funk. Obviously Brock isn't afraid of Funk. Unlike Rhodes or Race.

But Funk is an illiterate bum. Anyone can see that. He's a coward who has to attack people from behind or else he hasn't got a chance of doing anything. Brock showed Funk up for what he is.

Bobby Heenan is nowhere without Nick Bockwinkel, reader Frank Moon claims.

HEENAN IS A LOSER

Without Nick Bockwinkel, Bobby Heenan is a loser. Like any kind of parasite who has to live off other people, Heenan couldn't survive without his stable of wrestlers. Heenan does nothing. He has no strategy and I don't care what he says, he doesn't. And he doesn't do anything, his wrestlers do all the work.

From the "One-On-One" in the January issue, I could tell Bockwinkel is about fed up with Heenan and wants no part of him. Well, Nick, you're not alone. Neither do we.

ONE ON ONE

Lou Albano claims that he dragged the Valiants out of the gutter and made them into the stars that they are today. John Valiant believes, however, that he and his brothers made Albano what he is today. Albano and Valiant check into a classy New York hotel while they were still together.

Captain 'cause the Captain took you to the top and the Captain will drop you down the chutes.

JV: We already got shots at Santana and Putski.

LA: Do not.

JV: Course we do. The Valiants don't need Albano. You should go manage some prelim guys, they need your help. That's about your level.

LA: You never thanked me. Not once.

JV: Why should we thank you?

LA: What you mean, why? For all I did for you.

JV: You did nothin'. You stole our money and . . .

LA: I never stole money.

JV: Did to. You skimmed profits off the top and left us with zilch, baby. Me and the brothers had to take extra jobs to handle the bills, baby. We trusted you and then you stab us in the gut.

LA: That's a ball-faced lie.

John Valiant admires his favorite person in the whole world—himself. Valiant charges that Lou Albano demanded such a high percentage of the Valiants' profits that they were forced to find outside work.

JV: Ain't no lie, man, it's fact, dig? We got proof of your doings and we aim to shove it under some commissioner's nose and demand satisfaction.

LA: You guys can't even read, let alone write.

JV: Another lie. Jimmy can so read.

LA: Hah, first grade books, that's all he can read. Who's gonna believe has-beens. No one would give you a match. You're finished, Valiant. Washed up in the business. You might as well look for other employment.

JV: Just stay away from us, Albano.

LA: Who's gonna make me?

JV: The Valiant Brothers.

LA: Hah, you couldn't make a cup of instant coffee. That's why I dumped you. Too much responsibility handling the affairs of the mentally lame.

JV: Just keep away, turkey. Or else you'll be planted in place. ☐

You'll discover how it can bring abundant and overflowing wealth, find or bring back a lover, ward off evil influences, and much more—step-by-step in plain English, with complete easy-to-follow instructions!

Yes... Witchcraft! Every time you hear the word it brings with it the feelings of deep occult secrets—secrets that you would like to know so that your life can be better; so that your enemies will stop bothering you; so that serenity, love, power and comfort can be yours!

THE MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT lays bare these secrets for the first time! Do you want a bank account bursting at the seams with money? A love life that would make a sultan envious? Supreme power to crush your enemies and reward your friends? What would it be worth to you to utter a simple incantation that would cause any pain to vanish? Or say another, and immediately recover some lost object?

What would it be worth to you to fly through time and space, on astral wings, as Witches do... go wherever you wish... do whatever you wish... without being detected... watch the antics of others behind closed doors... hear private conversations... make time run forward or backward... read tomorrow's newspaper in a "black mirror"... find out what really happened in history... make your face old or young at will!

BRINGS AUTOMATIC ASSURED SUCCESS!

Witchcraft can bring your heart's desire! You can use it to heal someone, influence the boss to give you that raise, or make someone stop bothering you! It's easy! The easiest thing in the world! You don't have to be wealthy or super-intelligent to get started! Thousands of ordinary people all over the world are using Witchcraft Power right now!

Witches have known for centuries that people are scared of them and their powers! And rightly so! NOW YOU CAN SHARE THE SAME POWER that gives you literally—life and death control over other persons! Is someone bothering you? No problem at all, with Magic Witchcraft. For example, there is a spell called the "Cross Not My Path" ritual, for people who are having neighbor trouble. When you use it, you know you will never again have trouble with this neighbor!

With these amazing Witchcraft secrets, other people will look up to you—in awe—you'll automatically dazzle others with your power to make things happen at your will, you'll be Master of your destiny, and never have to apologize to anyone for anything!

Whatever you want or need, whatever frustration is bothering you, Witchcraft will help you. It is not evil—nor is it Black Magic. Like electricity, it is simply a power given by nature for the use of men, to make life easier.

You'll see how to get paid without working... how to get expensive clothes and furs FREE... how to get a first-class plane seat FREE... how to vacation at the finest hotels, motels, pools and pleasure palaces, start living like a millionaire as Witches do!

AMAZING TECHNIQUE HAS HELPED THOUSANDS!

Now! Let This Amazing Witch Book Bring You INFINITE WEALTH, FINE POSSESSIONS, A COMFORTABLE NEW HOME, FINANCIAL SECURITY, LOVE, CONTROL OVER OTHERS, And More—Easily And Automatically!

For centuries, these Witchcraft secrets were hushed up, so that those in power could stay in power! Feudal lords kept their bondsmen as slaves. Factory owners kept their employees in dreaded sweatshops, because these masters knew they must not allow their workers to realize that they need not labor their lives away. Witchcraft was suppressed because it works! Not because of any "evil" in it. If it hadn't worked, no one would have worried about it. If you want to gain power, all you need is this amazing Witch Book!

By using these Witchcraft secrets, you too can change your life and gain health, wealth, someone to love—or anything else—surely, swiftly and automatically!

You'll enjoy glittering luxuries, and start living like a millionaire, as Witches do!

• THE WITCH'S BLACK MIRROR!—Just as your TV set has been called your "window on the world," so the Black Mirror is your "window on the psychic world"—the world of the unknown. Making your own personal Black Mirror takes only a few moments and can open the way to unguessable visions. All you need is a bowl of water, some ink, and the chant on page 23. Suddenly you will see scenes from other places and times, or any scene you wish to see!

Evelyn, a waitress, was always lending money to friends, and was always broke. Finally, she placed her last dollar on the table, and worked the MONEY MAGNET SPELL over it. All at once, dozens of people who had borrowed money from her, rushed to pay her back!

Hank was perpetually broke. One night he got together with some friends, and they decided to cast the MONEY SPELL. The very next day, Hank received in the mail a check for some $250 worth of insurance. (He had never heard of the company that sent the check, he was not insured with them, and had never even made a claim—but he accepted the money.) Another member of the group that used the spell, a 40-year-old secretary, received an automobile as a gift! All the other members of the group received amazing windfalls of money, as well! You'll see how Dexter, a retiree, lives RENT FREE and receives $200 a week at the age of 78, with a secret you'll find in this Witch Book! You'll see how Claudine, a secretary, was able to wear the finest, most expensive furs—FREE—and spend weekends at an expensive ski lodge in the mountains, where she met a wonderful man! How Ruth L., a widow—with nothing but a small pension, and a little savings—received her dream house, by using a simple 5-minute ritual on page 38 of this book!

Using the same Witchcraft secrets, YOU can achieve peace of mind and freedom from money worries for the rest of your life!

YOU CAN HEAL YOURSELF AS WITCHES DO!

Feeling sick today? Plagued by a lot of troublesome illnesses? Perhaps some relative is sick and constantly demanding your attention? Or perhaps it is even a pet that needs help? With the MAGIC POWER OF WITCHCRAFT, you can cure anything, say authors Gavin and Yvonne Frost: "In our experience... we have not found a single incurable disease!"

• ANDY DISSOLVES A GALLSTONE!—Andy M. developed gallstones. When his illness became too troublesome to ignore, he went to a doctor. Urine tests revealed that he was chronically alkaline. His body was badly out of balance. Using this Witchcraft method to restore balance to the mind and body in a short while, X-rays showed that he had no more gallstones! Andy never again suffered the excruciating pain of passing stones!

In the same way, say Gavin and Yvonne Frost, almost all illness can be prevented. You are actually employing an ancient Witchcraft method to remove diseased tissue! Even if you do not have any belief in the results, the power will work for you!

One woman, who had been in a wheelchair for 26 years, due to polio and arthritis, used the Witchcraft healing method, and reported that she had no pain and could walk and garden again! A man reported that his son's deep 3rd degree burns miraculously healed overnight!

• SO SIMPLE A CHILD USES IT!—A 4-year-old girl asked if she could try to heal a man who was limping—due to a torn ligament—with this simple Witchcraft healing method. In a matter of moments, she started her chant, laying her hands on the weak ankle. The man was miraculously cured! To skeptics, this should be convincing PROOF that anyone can use it!

AMAZING POWER CAN BE YOURS!

Whether you want infinite wealth, or just a comfortable new home, financial security, fine possessions, love, companionship, new health and vigor, power to control others, secret knowledge, protection from evil, or anything else, the magic power of Witchcraft can bring it to you quickly, easily and automatically! It's the easiest thing in the world!

• HOW TO SEE INTO THE FUTURE!—Would you like to be able to see the future? You CAN with the magic Black Mirror you'll see how to make on page 23. All you need is some ink and a bowl of water. Use the chant on this page, and you will be able to see many things. One man uses it to read tomorrow's newspaper. YOU can use it to check the stock market or that important horse race!

GET INTO SHAPE

ONLY FOR THE HEALTHY!
Before embarking on this bodybuilding program or any other new physical endeavor, be sure to check with your physician for his okay. This course specializes in developing the body to its maximum potential and should only be attempted by those in good health.

Most men never develop themselves to their fullest potential. Why? Probably because they've never come across or taken a training program quite like the one we offer at Universal Bodybuilding.

Most men wouldn't want to be as heavily muscled as the model shown -- not that everyone has this type of potential -- but most men would like to be a lot better than what they are! You have it within yourself to develop to your fullest potential!

There's really no reason for not being in shape-- it certainly doesn't take that much time! All you have to do is follow our program three times a week. You will soon get results that you can see and feel! The satisfaction that comes from knowing you're working toward being the very best you can be is hard to beat!

Not only will the program help get you into shape, it will improve and increase your strength as well. This is a definite plus for those who want to step up their strength and endurance for sports!

Also, don't forget the psychological benefits of exercise. As you get into the habit of exercising, you'll have an increased awareness of self, and being more in touch with your body.

WHY LET YOURSELF DETERIORATE?

Face it! Unless you do something about it, your body will eventually become out of shape. As you get older, it is especially difficult to remain as active as you would like to be.

If you're out of shape, the combination of bodybuilding and diet can rid you of excess fat and flab. You'll see miracles performed on your waistline!

If you're at least 18 years of age, we'll be glad to send you a colorful booklet. Absolutely free! Simply send us your name, address and zip code.
